PROVA DI INGLESE

Il candidato legga e traduca:

The weather is one of the few things we can't control but it is one of the most important things in our lives. The way we live and the things we do depend on the weather. The weather influences the clothes we wear, what we do – beach or indoor swimming pool – and even what we eat – hot soup or a nice salad.

When we are planning a journey, we need to know if there's snow and ice on the roads, or if there's thick fog.

And how many holidays are ruined by bad weather? There can be no doubt our lives are very strongly influenced by the weather.

3. IL CANDIDATO ILLUSTRI NOMINA, DURATA E COMPETENZE DELLA GIUNTA COMUNALE

PROVA INGLESE

Il candidato legga e traduca:

The British in particular have a reputation for being obsessed with the weather but this isn't surprising when you consider how changeable the weather in Britain can be. A day can start with a sunny morning, then change into a wet afternoon and become cloudy and windy in the evening.

British people know that the weather is unpredictable and they prepare for that. In fact it's not unusual to see people having a picnic on the beach in boots and coats or people at summer festivals walking in the mud carrying umbrellas.

But when the sun shines, even if it is only early spring, the British put on their shorts, t-shirts and sandals, and they don't worry about getting ill!

PROVA INGLESE

There isn't a very big difference between summer and winter temperatures in the UK. The temperature is generally mild all year and people want to enjoy the sun when they can. There's no need for long summer school holidays in August because of the heat. British people don't usually have separate summer and winter clothes: they put on a jumper or jacket in the winter, take it off in the summer. They sleep with quilts on their beds all year around.

3. IL CANDIDATO ILLUSTRI L'ACCESSO AGLI ATTI AI SENSI DEL D.LGS. 241/1990

PROVA INGLESE

Il candidato legga e traduca:

The British aren't prepared for extreme weather. A very hot summer means houses are uncomfortable because buildings in the UK keep people warm, not cool. They usually have thick carpets and curtains and no air-conditioning.

In the winter, heavy snow means people can't get to work or school because train and bus services aren't designed to operate in these freezing conditions and people can't drive because of the snow on the roads. Climate change is beginning to have an impact on the British way of life and the national obsession with the weather is getting worse!
